

Jamaica, NY

F

Jan. 23, 1812

Concord Gazette
Feb. 04, 1812

A shock of an Earthquake was felt at Jamaica, L. I. a little after 9 o'clock on Thursday evening. About the same time a noise was heard in this city, which by some, was said to be an Earthquake.

N. York Gaz.

Poulson's American Daily Advertiser
Jan. 27, 1812

NEW YORK, January 24

ANOTHER EARTHQUAKE

A correspondent, at Jamacia (L.I.) under (?) of this day says - "Yesterday morning, at fifteen minutes after nine o'clock, a shock of an earthquake was sensibly felt in this village. Everything suspended in my house was set into motion for more than a minute. The motion was a steady swinging backward and forward. The shock was felt also by my family, and by several of our neighbors.

We understand that the shock was noticed by many people in this city.